ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
SCHOOL BOARD
OF THE
TOWN OF SOUTH NEWMARKET.

Both statute and custom require that annual school reports shall be made to the town and to the State Department of Public Instruction. The School Committee respectfully submit to the citizens of the town the following report. It will exhibit an account of the financial affairs of the district, together with a statement of the condition of the several schools in town.

SCHOOL MEETING.

The annual school meeting was held at the town hall, March 12, 1892. James W. Robinson was chosen moderator, Wm. H. Garland clerk, and George W. Pollard auditor. William H. Conner was elected a member of the School Board for one year, and James H. Fitts for three years.

ORGANIZATION.

The School Board organized March 14, 1892, and chose the following sub-committees: Augustus W. Richards on Piscassic school, William H. Conner on finance and repairs, James H. Fitts on superintendence, text-books and supplies. The school buildings were considered to be in so good repair and so amply furnished as to require little if any outlay. It was judged best to secure teachers from our own town, and to continue the Grammar school under the tuition of a female teacher. Each member of the committee has continued to fill his specific office throughout the year.

SCHOOLS. AND TEACHERS.

Our schools have done good work the past year. The several teachers have had charge of their respective schools during the entire school year. Your committee have no need to particularize their distinctive merits and the uniform success which has crowned their labors. The faithful teacher and enthusiastic pupils of the Grammar school have done themselves much credit and redeemed anything that may have been lacking in the reputation of the school. No one can question the expediency of continuing this school under something like the present arrangement.

It seems desirable that the school year of study should close with the spring rather than the winter term. The winter term is short, is of least importance, and often ends in bad weather and with roads almost impassable. The spring term is more important; the upper classes graduate, others are promoted and new classes are formed. The higher institutions in the land close with the spring season.

Good health has prevailed quite generally in our families; all visits and closing examinations of the schools have been very satisfactory; examination papers have been used with fidelity on the part of pupils and with evident good effect; teachers, scholars, committee, parents and friends have heartily cooperated; our schools are worth all they have cost and are worthy of our pride and liberal support.

TEXT-BOOKS.

The text-books now in use are Harrington's speller, new Franklin readers, Swinton's grammars, Butler's geographies, Colburn's and Robinson's arithmetics, Harper's penmanship, Barnes' and Swinton's histories, Meservey's book-keeping and political economy, Hutchinson's physiology, Lockwood's rhetoric, Wentworth's algebra, Wells' philosophy.

SCHOOL EVENTS.

Three of our teachers attended the Strafford County Teachers' Institute at Great Falls, two days, April 21st and 22d.

The Centre schools were called upon to assist in the exercises of Memorial Day, by recitations and singing, May 30th.

Our schools observed the National Columbian Public Celebration, October 21st. The official program was carried out at Piscassic and at the Centre. Assistance was rendered by members of the Grand Army of the Republic, the clergymen, drum corps, and citizens of the town. In the forenoon at Piscassic the new flag was raised by members of the Grand Army, cheered by the citizens and saluted by the pupils. All joined in singing America and song of Columbus Day. The address for Columbus Day was read by Charles H. Reynolds; the Ode was recited by Alice B. Huse; other readings and recitations were by Lillian Burley, Nellie M. Hanson, May E. Osgood, Clara F. Pierson, Alice M. Reynolds, Bertha M. Sanborn, Helen A. Sanborn, Roscoe Shannon. Rev. Edward Smiley spoke of Columbus as a boy. Remarks were made by several citizens of whom there were fifty-six present. At the Centre in the afternoon, all the schools joined in the procession with badges, flags, and martial music. All united in raising, cheering, and saluting the flag. The Columbian Address was declaimed by Charles J. Leddy and, in the abbreviated form, by Louis B. Freeze. The Ode for Columbus Day was recited by Evelyn G. Hayden. Other exercises were a lesson in history by the Intermediate school, and recitations by four pupils of the Primary school. Rev. Edward Smiley spoke of Columbus as a man. Rev. A. L. Smith was chaplain of the day. Mr. Charles E. Smith and Mr. H. Jenness Paul spoke both forenoon and afternoon. Sung America, song of Columbus Day, To Thee O Country, Glory Hallelujah. The drum corps were in attendance during the day. The Town Hall was well filled.

There was another interesting gathering of the schools in the Town Hall, Wednesday evening, January 18, 1893. The Rev. Edward P. Tenney delivered an illustrated lecture entitled Young America Abroad, A Trip Round the World in Sixty Minutes. The lecture was finely delivered, well patronized, and highly appreciated by pupils and citizens. A pleasant episode was the subsequent review of the lecture by the Grammar school as an exercise in history and geography.
